About Vikram Deb Autonomous College

Vikram Deb Autonomous College is one of the premier educational institutions in Odisha situated in the district of Koraput which has been affiliated to Berahmpur University, Berahmpur and has also been recognised by the UGC rule-128(1956) of UGC Act. In order to cater the basic needs of higher education in tribal dominated district of the then Koraput, this college has been established on 1st July 1947. The philanthropist King Rajashri Vikram Deb Verma has donated land as well as buildings for the development of this institution. The College has been upgraded to a First Grade College in the year 1961. Thereafter, the college started opening of certain under graduate programmes in various disciplines of humanities and sciences in the year 1961 and 1963 respectively. Honours programmes in various departments have been launched during 1968 to 1973. The college has initiated post-graduate programmes in the year 1979. Upon the successful functioning of the college, the University Grants Commission has conferred autonomy status to the college in July 2004, which has given an outstanding impetus to its academic excellence as well as pedagogic expansion. The college has been assessed and accredited by the National Assessment and Accreditations Council (NAAC), Bangalore.
